

California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board Privacy Policy

Pursuant to Government Code Section 11019.9, the California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board (CUIAB) maintains the following privacy policy:

- The CUIAB obtains personally identifiable data only through lawful means.
- The purposes for which personally identifiable data are collected shall be specified at or prior to the time of collection, and any subsequent use is limited to the fulfillment of purposes not inconsistent with those purposes initially specified.
- CUIAB does not disclose, make available, or use any personally identifiable data for purposes other than the reasons specified at or before the time of collection without the consent of the subject of the data or as authorized by law or regulation.
- All personal information collected and maintained by the CUIAB is secured against loss, damage, modification or unauthorized disclosure. CUIAB uses multiple technological and procedural approaches to protect against unauthorized disclosure of this information pursuant to current law and practice.
- Information on CUIAB's Web site is public domain and may be used as permitted by law, with the exception of pictures and official symbols. While CUIAB attempts to maintain a high degree of accuracy, we will not be held liable for errors or omissions that may occur. If you visit another Web site using a link from CUIAB's Web site, you become subject to the privacy policy and conditions of that Web site. The CUIAB will not be held liable for information or practices observed by other Web sites that provide access links from this Website.

These policies have been developed and are maintained in accordance with the Information Practices Act of 1977 (Title 1.8 (commencing with Section 1798) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code) and in accordance with Section 11019.9 of the Government Code.

Should you need further information or have questions about the privacy of personally identifiable data maintained by the CUIAB, please contact:
